SARWAR AND TARAR

Sarwar and Tarar is the continuation of Sarwar Law Associates, established in 1962, and is now in its third generation of practice. The firm advises and represents companies, institutions and government bodies in corporate, commercial, tax and dispute resolution matters.

Our practice combines advisory and transactional work with litigation. We handle both contentious and non-contentious matters across a wide range of areas, including corporate, commercial, tax, regulatory, constitutional, property and employment law, and represent clients before courts, tribunals and regulatory authorities, as well as in arbitration and mediation.

Based in Lahore, the firm acts for clients across Pakistan and regularly appears in Islamabad, Rawalpindi, Multan and Karachi. A number of companies and government departments retain us as their legal counsel on an ongoing basis. Our aim is to give advice that is clear, practical and aligned with our clients' commercial objectives.

Our Partners:

Asad Zaman Tarar

Asad is an advocate of the High Courts of Pakistan. He obtained his Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) (Hons.) from the University of London, and thereafter his Master of Laws (LL.M.) in Litigation and Dispute Resolution from The George Washington University, Washington, D.C.

Asad's practice focuses on corporate, commercial and tax law. On the corporate and commercial side, he advises domestic and foreign clients on company law, contracts, commercial arrangements, employment law and regulatory matters. Where matters turn contentious, he represents clients before courts and tribunals, and in arbitration proceedings.

On the tax side, Asad's practice is appellate and constitutional. He represents taxpayers before the High Court in tax and customs references, and in constitutional petitions challenging tax demands, notices and other actions of the tax authorities. He also appears before the Appellate Tribunals in income tax, sales tax (goods and services), federal excise duty and customs matters.

Asad acts for listed and private companies, multinationals, family-owned groups and non-governmental organisations. His clients span the fertilizer, sugar, textile, energy, food, healthcare, education, hospitality, banking and insurance, real estate and technology sectors. He also advises government departments and public sector bodies on retainer.
